– Alnylam Supports 23 Local Organizations in the Greater Boston Area and Western Europe –

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 12, 2018-- Alnylam Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Nasdaq:ALNY), the leading RNAi therapeutics company, today kicked off its fourth annual company-wide "Helping Hands" Community Service Day benefiting 23 organizations, including 16 organizations in the Greater Boston area and seven organizations in Western Europe.

The program has successfully reached its fourth year and has expanded to more than 700 employees at 23 sites, dedicating 3,500 hours to local causes and organizations, a 150 percent increase from its inaugural year.

"Every summer we look forward to our 'Helping Hands' Community Service Day. This day provides the opportunity to not only give back to the community, but to support and connect with the important missions these organizations are striving to achieve. This day is an annual reminder that 'Commitment to People' is one of our core values at Alnylam," said John Maraganore, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer at Alnylam. "The enthusiasm and excitement our team members share leading up to and on 'Helping Hands' day is infectious, and we are extremely grateful to the organizations who continue to welcome us back year after year."

Activities range from supporting underserved youth, restoration of parks, home ownership for low income families, fighting hunger, and other neighborhood initiatives. Beneficiary organizations include:
